SPECIAL CLEARANCE AND ISSUANCE PROCEDURES

(TL:VISA-214; 10-19-2000)

The U.S. Embassy does not attempt to request clearance information for immigrant visas from Madagascar government authorities, because experience has shown that it takes three to four months to receive a reply. Information concerning the applicant's police and prison records, if any, is already included in the "Bulletin de Casier Judiciaire" which is one of the supporting documents required from immigrant visa applicants who claim previous residence in Madagascar.

The Embassy answers requests for visa clearances (including VISAS ALPHA) by checking only the clearance information found in their own records.

DOCUMENTS AND RECORDS

Birth Certificate

(TL:VISA-214; 10-19-2000)

Available. Birth certificates (actes de naissance) are available to all persons, regardless of nationality, resident or non-resident, born in Madagascar and are obtainable from the chief of the district (chef du district) of the applicant's birth. A fee may be charged for this service.

Since all acts affecting the civil position of applicants born in Madagascar are normally recorded at the place of birth, pertinent extracts may be requested when applying for a birth certificate.

Adoption Certificate

(TL:VISA-214; 10-19-2000)

Available. Adoption certificate (certificat d'adoption) or Acknowledgment of Paternity or Maternity (certificate de reconnaissance) is available from the chief of the district at the place of adoption or acknowledgment. A fee may be charged for this service.

Death Certificate

(TL:VISA-214; 10-19-2000)

Available. Actes de deces are available from the chief of the district at the place of death. Available for all persons, regardless of nationality. A fee may be charged for this service.

Divorce Record

(TL:VISA-214; 10-19-2000)

Available. Jugements de divorce. Records available to all persons regardless of nationality, resident or non-resident. Non-citizens may obtain records from the chief of the district where the event took place. Madagascar citizens can apply to the clerk of the Court of First Instance in the province where the divorce took place. A fee may be charged for this service.

Good Conduct Record

(TL:VISA-214; 10-19-2000)

Unavailable.

Marriage Certificate

(TL:VISA-214; 10-19-2000)

Available. Actes de Mariage are available from the chief of the district at the place of marriage. Available for all persons (resident or non-resident), regardless of nationality. A fee may be charged for this service.

Police Record

(TL:VISA-365; 03-07-2002)

Available. A judicial record (Bulletin de casier judiciaire) is obtainable by all persons born in Madagascar from the "Procureur General" in the province of their birth. Persons not born but having resided in Madagascar may obtain a similar record from the "Procureur General" in Antananarivo. Any person, regardless of nationality, presently or formally a resident in Madagascar, may obtain judicial records. Request for this document must be accompanied with a notarized copy of the requestor's passport. Fee: 2,000 FMG.

Prison Record

(TL:VISA-263; 04-18-2001)

Available. Madagascar citizens who joined the Army before 1961 may obtain their military record (certificat de position militaire) from the Bureau Militaire of their Sous-Prefecture; whereas, Madagascar citizens who have joined since then may obtain it from the Bureau de Recrutement of the Service National of the Madagascar Army. Reservists who have entered since 1948 may obtain their record at the latter office, also, provided that they retained their Madagascar citizenship following independence in 1960. Reservists, who chose or were of French nationality, can obtain their records from the Bureau Central de Recrutement Francais in Paris or, if in a French department or dependency abroad, at the Bureau Militaire in their Prefecture. French citizens in Madagascar may obtain the record from the French Consulate General in Antananarivo. . A fee may be charged for this service.

NOTE: Processing time for all documents listed above is approximately one month from date of receipt. Applicants who appear in person can receive the documentation in seven days. Applications by mail must be accompanied by postal money order covering the appropriate fees and the return postage for response by registered mail.
